

I am against any form of cross-ownership. It was bad enough when the US gave away billions of dollars in air space for broadcasting and the TV news and the Papers did not cover this event, it would affect them. The public was kept in the dark about this giveaway.